Dear Ms. Kamei,

Thank you for your e-mail. If you are a friend of John and Cynthia perhaps you can have them get in touch with Mr. Oppenheim by the date indicated in our demand letter.

This e-mail is without prejudice to our client's rights and remedies under applicable law, and the demands set forth in our letter dated September 11, 2007 all of which are reserved.

Sincerely,

Melissa Bailey

Dear Melissa:

I appreciate very much your letter, yet please understand that in no way have I tried to emulate or copy John Hardy's designs. I am actually a friend of John and Cynthia and my husband cared for their sick children while he was on sabbatical in Bali.

In patent situations the design has to be changed up to or above 10% as you can see my design is extremely different from John's.

The technique used has been in Bali for hundreds of years.

If you like I can put you in touch with my lawyer for any further correspondence.

Most Sincerely Kathy Kamei
